The emblem of the Cartier Family is an enormous snake.

A monster from a myth that is said to be four meters long.

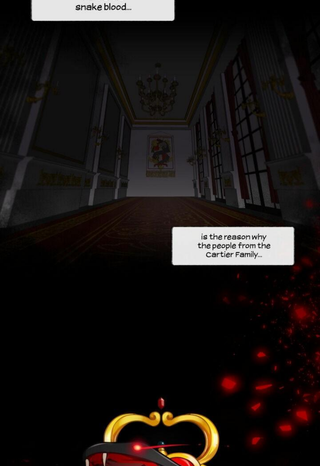
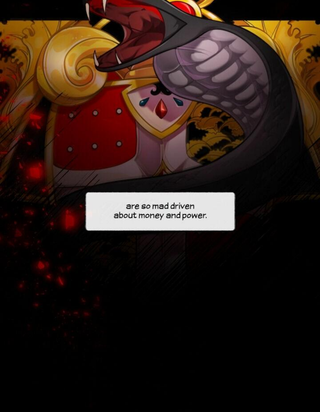
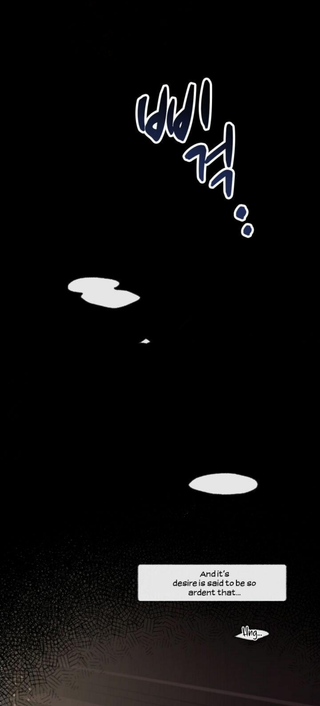
It is believed that the progeny of the snake and a lady was the start of the Cartier Family.



And that snake blood...



is the reason why the people from the Cartier Family...



are so mad driven about money and power.

And it's desire is said to be so ardent that...

it captures and engulfs

Lucerne de Kayas

SFX: Hiss...

가아아ㅏ

Similar to the black snakes that were the origins of the Cartier family, he's a man who possesses red eyes.

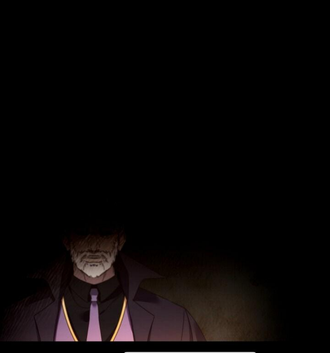
Along with that trait,

he was the only one who was able to inherit the special ability of the Duchy.

However, he was unable to retain the Cartier name...

due to his mother's commoner background.

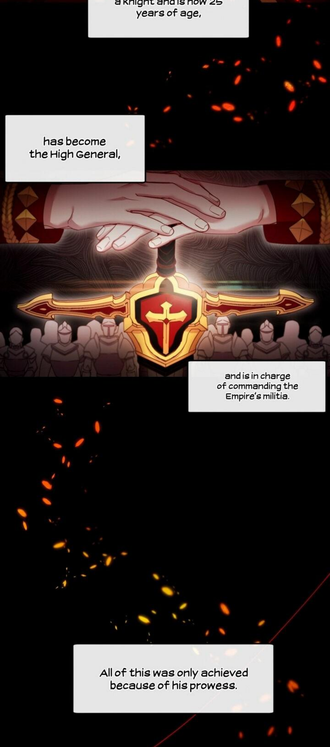


His sensibility...

was something that even the current head of the family thought was regretful to not possess.

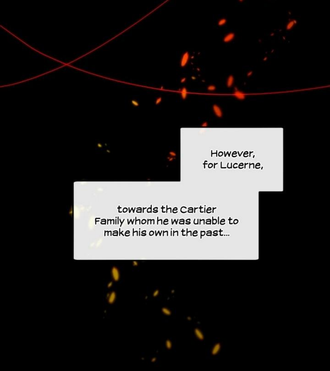
Even in Cartier,

where the head of the family is determined not by legitimacy but by competition and tests,



Lucerne's exceptional abilities were feared,

despite him being an orphan and illegitimate son.



He, who was once a knight and is now 25 years of age,

has become the High General,

and is in charge of commanding the Empire's militia.

All of this was only achieved because of his prowess.

However, for Lucerne, towards the Cartier Family whom he was unable to make his own in the past...

WHEN I WAS SEVEN, I MADE A VOW TO MYSELF.

EVERYTHING THAT I AM UNABLE TO GRASP...

I WILL DESTROY INTO PIECES.

He demolished everything.

My husband was concerned for the health of the Lord,

So we've worked hard to acquire

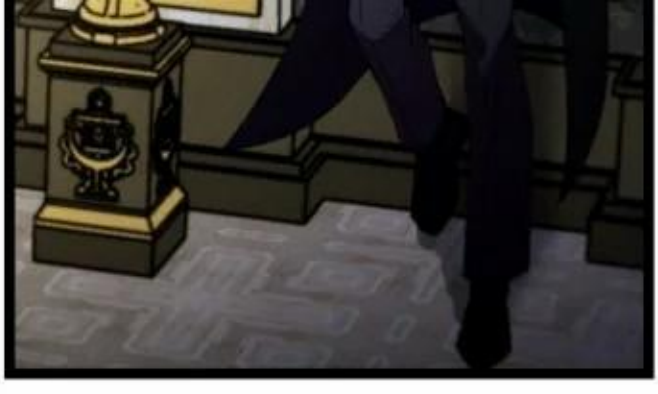
one can live for a long time.

Also for your sake, my Lord,

they have put in a lot of effort on the Great Pope election.

The reason why Merha wants to be the Great Pope...

is to empower his son Marco to become the Head of the family.



The current head won't want Merha to be the Great Pope.
